Brandon Rueda is a Paralegal at Barran Liebman where he supports our attorneys with case management, factual research and analysis, response to discovery requests, document collection, review and production, deposition preparation and participation, and general trial preparation.

In addition to his paralegal studies and expected graduation next spring, Brandon developed a strong analytical ability during his time as the Director of Orchestra Operations at the Pacific Symphony. In this role, Brandon was responsible for the execution and operational oversight of over one hundred concerts, special events, and tour presentations. With vast experience in client services and operational management, Brandon is highly detail-oriented with a demonstrated ability to develop workable solutions despite unexpected challenges.

Brandon earned his B.A. in Music with a Minor in Sociology from the University of California, Irvine. He graduated from Portland Community College's Paralegal Program in the spring of 2019.
