ANDREW M. SCHPAK

503.276.2156 | aschpak@barran.com | www.barran.com

Andrew Schpak is the Co-Managing Partner at Barran Liebman and has been exclusively representing management in employment litigation and providing advice in employment matters for over fourteen years. He works with prominent Oregon companies and government entities, navigating complex employment laws and creating strategies and solutions for his clients' success. Andrew drafts and updates workplace policies and employee handbooks, provides workplace training, and advises clients on employment issues when they arise. He also drafts, reviews, and negotiates employment, partnership, and independent contractor agreements, as well as confidentiality, non-solicitation, and non-competition agreements. Andrew spends the majority of his time representing clients before state and federal administrative agencies and in state and federal court proceedings.

Andrew currently serves as a Board Member of the Portland Business Alliance and as Chair of the Leadership Portland Alumni Association Steering Committee. He is Immediate Past President of the Multnomah Bar Association (MBA) and previously led both the American Bar Association (ABA) Young Lawyers Division (YLD) and the MBA Young Lawyers Section. He also serves as an At Large Delegate to the ABA House of Delegates, the Reporter of the Select Committee, a member of the ABA Standing Committee on Bar Activities and Services, and on the Law Student Division Advisory Committee. Andrew is also Secretary of the Judicial Division Lawyers Conference, Co-Chair of the Lawyers Conference's Public Outreach Committee, a member of the Law Practice Division Council, and Co-Chair of the Law Practice Division Membership and Recognition Committee. He is also a Life Fellow, Board Member, Chair of the Institutional Relations Committee, and Co-Chair of the Oregon Chapter of the Fellows of the American Bar Foundation. Andrew was first listed in the Oregon Super Lawyers Magazine as a Rising Star in 2009 and has been listed as a Super Lawyer since 2013. Andrew was recently honored by the Portland Business Journal's "Forty Under 40" as a leading executive and by the Multnomah Bar Association as the 2017 Mentor of the Year.

Andrew has a passion for helping those who are homeless and trying to find stability. As Chair of the ABA YLD, he developed and implemented "Project Street Youth: Young Lawyers Advocating for Homeless Youth[,]" which provided young lawyers across the country with the education and materials they needed to set up free legal aid clinics across the country. Andrew also recently joined the Transition Projects Board, where he embraces the opportunity to help advance the organization's mission of helping people transition from homelessness to housing in the Portland metro area.

Andrew graduated from Reed College and received his J.D. from Cornell Law School. He is admitted to practice in Oregon and Washington state and federal courts and is certified as a Senior Professional in Human Resources (SPHR) by the Human Resources Certification Institute (HRCI) and as a Senior Certified Professional (SCP) by the Society for Human Resources Management.
